

Air Force Officer Gets Assignment in Far East

Col. Kenneth B. Fess, a Torrance native and former chief of the Development Engineering Division, Directorate of Planning and Technology at the Air Force Electronic Systems Division in Hanscom Field, Mass., is the new deputy commander of ESD's Detachment 11 at Fuchu, Japan.

The ESD Detachment at Fuchu serves as on-site representatives in the management of ESD systems in the Far East.

Colonel Fess entered the Army Air Corps as an aviation cadet in 1942. Commissioned the following year, he was a flying instructor before his assignment as a B-29 aircraft commander in the Pacific where he participated in 28 combat missions against the Japanese homeland.

FOLLOWING the war's end, he served in Florida, Tennessee, New Mexico, Ohio, Washington, D. C., and California. Before reporting to the Electronic Systems Division at Hanscom Field two years ago, he supervised the military requirements board and was assistant officer in charge at Lawrence Radiation Laboratory in Livermore, Calif.

Colonel Fess is a graduate of the University of California with bachelor of science degree in chemistry and holds a master of science degree in Nuclear Engineering from North Carolina State College. He is also a graduate of the Command and Staff School.

HE HAS BEEN decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters, and the Distinguished Unit Citation.

Colonel Fess and his wife, the former Marcia Ann Dyer of Palos Verdes Estates, have three children: Marbeth, Kathryn, and Kenneth.

Seminar For Vets Planned

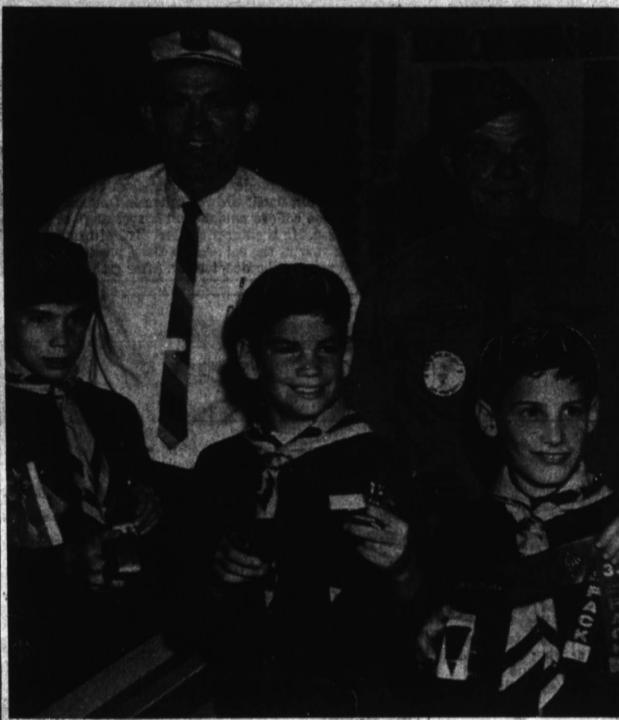

A service officer's seminar for veterans in the Southwest area of Los Angeles County will be conducted at the Hawthorne Veterans of Foreign Wars Post, 4563 W. 131st St., at 8 tonight.

Commander Kazuo Monami of the Gardena VFW, said all veterans in or out of the Armed Forces, their dependents, and widows or orphans of deceased veterans are invited to attend.

Veterans from Torrance, Lomita, Gardena, the Beach Cities, Lawndale, Hawthorne, and the West Los Angeles area are invited to participate in the seminar. It will cover all aspects of laws governing veterans' benefits, Monami said.

Approve Plans

Plans for a 15-acre commercial subdivision in the Carson area have been approved by the Regional Planning Commission. The property is located at Torrance Boulevard and Figueroa Street and will be divided into five commercial lots.

'Unreality' Is Sermon Topic

"In the multitude of dreams and many words there are also diverse vanities; but fear thou God."

This verse from Ecclesiastes is the Golden Text of this week's Bible Lesson on "Unreality" to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Italian Voice Teacher To Lead Singing Class

Students enrolling in the attention is stressed in his voice training classes offered by the Redondo Beach Parks and Recreation Department will receive training from a real pro as Signor Adrian Rosati begins another season of voice building.

The course, open to the public, beginning Wednesday, Oct. 4, is no new experience for Rosati who has taught voice training since he came to America from southern Italy, or as he calls it — "Caruso country."

A great proponent of vocal exercising, Rosati believes that anyone who talks can learn to sing as well through proper breathing and diaphragmatic control. "There is no such thing as tone deafness," says Rosati. "Everything can be conquered through exercise." Individual
